IRF expands strategic investor relations services with René Weber as Senior Advisor

IRF – a leading consultancy for strategic communication – is further expanding its Investor Relations offering. René Weber joined the team as Senior Advisor on 1st of May 2021. With the nationally recognised former financial analyst René Weber, IRF strengthens its expertise in the special areas of investor relations, cultivating and expanding investor relations, international capital markets, strategic positioning and profiling of executives, corporate governance as well as financial and economic analysis.

René Weber has worked as a financial analyst for Bank Vontobel for the past 34 years. During his long career, he has assessed and supported companies from a wide range of industries, most recently with a focus on the consumer goods and watch industries. He has also assisted various companies with their IPOs. René Weber will now bring his extensive industry knowledge and first-class analytical skills to bear in assessing and providing strategic advice to Swiss companies.

In recent years, IRF has established itself as one of the leading Swiss consulting firms for economic issues. IRF counts around 40 Swiss and international companies among its regular clients. In addition, IRF has made a name for itself in crisis communication and in accompanying capital market transactions.
